THE "CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA" DIOCESAN BIBLIOGRAPHY

There exists no complete bibliography of the Catholic Church in the United States. The only work published thus far that approaches the problem is Finotti's Bibliographia Catholica Americana. Finotti's work, however, is not a technical one. It is a list of books written and published by Catholic authors in the United States, and it covers only the years 1789 to 1820. What is needed is a volume similar to that published by Professors Channing, Hart, and Turner: Guide to the Study of American History. They selected from the immense mass of rich material on American History all that was likely to be most immediately useful to the searcher in political, social, constitutional, and economic American history. A Bibliography of American Catholic History is the work of a lifetime. It can hardly be done by any one scholar or student. Help must be asked from the thousands of American Catholics who are interested in such a study; and help must come especially from the clergy.

It is only after long deliberation that a plan has been decided upon for launching this much-needed work. We begin by publishing the bibliographies to be found at the end of all the articles in the Catholic Encyclopedia which treat of the Dioceses and Archdioceses of the United States. Parts I and II of this bibliography were published in the July and October (1918) issues of the REVIEW. Copies of these pages will then be sent to all who are known to be students of American Church history, with the request that books be added. From time to time these completed lists will be reprinted in the REVIEW, and all those who assist in the work will be given credit for the same. For the present, the usual divisions of Sources and Books must be abandoned, and the final classification will be postponed until it is concluded that the lists as published are as exhaustive as possible. The scheme to be followed will be chronological, that is, the fourteen Provinces will be taken up in the order of their erection and under each Province or Archdiocese the Suffragan Bishoprics as they are at present will be placed again in the order of their erection. Through the courtesy of the Editors of the Catholic Encyclopedia we are permitted to use their volumes for these purposes.
